

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
WESTERN PACIFIC JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
NAVY-MARINE CORPS TRIAL JUDICIARY
PSC 557 BOX 955
FPO AP 96379-0955

WESTPACJUDCIRINST 5813.1
CMJ
26 Feb 2007

WESTERN PACIFIC JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, NAVY-MARINE CORPS TRIAL JUDICIARY
INSTRUCTION 5813.1

Subj: WESTERN PACIFIC JUDICIAL CIRCUIT RULES OF COURT

Ref: (a) NAVMARTRIJUDACTINST 5813.4

Encl: (1) Rules of Court, Western Pacific Judicial Circuit

1. Purpose. To implement the reference and promulgate and establish uniform local rules of practice applicable to court-martial practice within the Western Pacific Judicial Circuit.

2. Applicability. The Circuit Rules of Court contained in the enclosure shall apply to all Navy and Marine Corps general and special courts-martial tried within the Western Pacific Judicial Circuit.

3. Cancellation. WESTPACJUDCIRINST 5810.1

4. Action.

a. All rules set forth in the reference and the enclosure shall be followed by military and civilian counsel trying general and special courts-martial within the Western Pacific Judicial Circuit.

b. The Circuit Military Judge, with the assistance of the District Senior Judges, will ensure that copies of the reference and the enclosure are provided to the Commanding Officers and Officers-in-Charge of the appropriate Navy and Marine Corps legal offices responsible for the trial of courts-martial within each District, for further distribution to all military counsel under their cognizance.

5. Responsibility. The Circuit Military Judge, Western Pacific Judicial Circuit is accountable for providing timely, efficient and comprehensive judicial services to all Navy and Marine Corps activities within the Western Pacific Judicial Circuit area of responsibility as designated by the Judge Advocate General of the Navy. All requests for assignment and detailing of a military judge shall be determined by the Circuit Military Judge or his district designee.

B. D. LANDRUM